

A Day to Reach Out

CARSON CITY'S 5TH ANNUAL HOMELESS CONNECT

Carson City Health & Human Services
900 E. Long Street - Carson City, NV 89701

September 25, 2010
10 A.M. - 2 P.M.

Carson City Health & Human Services, in collaboration with other Community Service Agencies, is hosting the 5th Annual Homeless Connect to reach out to our community who are experiencing a level of poverty and/or homelessness.

This is an opportunity to come to one location and see how your community works together to build, "Bridges out of Poverty." Learn about our community resources that are available to people in poverty, or homeless individuals and/or families. Experts from each of our Community Agencies will be available for you to discuss accessing those resources. Come and join us!

In conjunction with the "Homeless Connect" will be the "Homeless Health Day", which will be sponsored by Dr. Baggett, Sunset Rotary, Friends In Service Helping (FISH), "Oral Health Coalition", and "Carson Health and Human Services Health Clinic". Physical examinations, Immunizations, HIV Testing, and Oral Health Screening will be provided to those individuals/families that are homeless. A brief Medical Screening will be provided to determine eligibility.

Judge John Tatro will again set up a court room right here at Carson City Health & Human Services to participating families and individuals an opportunity to discuss: legal issues, minor traffic tickets, or any other concerns that may be preventing you from moving forward. If anyone has had concerns about something and it is stopping them from moving forward; this is your chance to correct the problem.

Showers donated by Sani-Hut, Supercuts will be here to give you a new look for school or your next interview. Blankets, hygiene kits, hats, gloves, and even school supplies will be available for those individuals and or families in need.

St. Teresa's will be providing large assortment of donated clothing and a warm meal. The list goes on. You do not want to miss this life changing event.

These extraordinarily individuals have given up apart of their weekend for this community event, to come together for one day, for one reason, you!
